LaBelle Market

Let's face it, life would be much less delicious without the wide array of eateries that make up our local food scene. It's been an especially difficult year for the foodservice industry, so we encourage you to get out there and support your favorite restaurants and celebrate the beginning of summer with lots of good food and drink!

Here in the shop, we customize tons of uniforms for our customers in the foodservice industry. It's fun to see how the unique culture and personality of each restaurant shows in their choice of uniforms. Here are a few observations we've made:

Uniforms work best when they complement the culture of a business.

Uniforms don't have to be formal to be effective. For casual spots like coffee shops or cafes, a t-shirt might be a perfect choice.

Custom apparel is a huge part of branding efforts. A uniform creates an impression and sets the tone for a business. As the face of a company, employees promote brand identity when they are dressed alike.

Uniforms bring a team together. We've noticed this right here in our own shop! A simple uniform can also be a powerful way to promote a sense of camaraderie, boost morale, and foster community. Having employees dressed alike can also help build trust and credibility with customers.
